

Clean Set of Claims

1. Apparatus to adapt a common telephone for operation as a speakerphone, comprising:

a loudspeaker for producing sounds in a local vicinity of said apparatus; a microphone adaptively attached to a said apparatus; and an audio module adapted for removable interfacing to a handset jack of a base unit of a telephone to adapt said common telephone for operation as a speakerphone through said loudspeaker and said microphone; wherein said audio module is portable for transportation between common telephones.